TUNNEY BELIEVES SCHMELING BEAT SHARKEY IN BOUT

New York, (Det. Stand, secret ary of the state athletic commission said that an special meeting was planned to settle Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, to explain his charge that the German was robbed of the heavyweight title Tuesday night.

Anyone wishing to file charges will be given an opportunity at the regular meeting.

Gene Tunney, retired heavy weight champion, was another of the fight observers who thought Schmeling had won.

"I do not agree with the belief of many old timers that a champion has to be beaten decisively to lose his title," Tunney explained.

"and Schmeling forced the fighting and earned the decision over Sharkey."

Tunney watched the fight from a front row ring-side seat.

HEARD ON THE STREET

"Why did you flirt with me?" demanded Herb Hittely. "Why did you let me take you out every day? Why did you let me take you to theatre and cinema every night? Why did you encourage me when you were already engaged?"

"The girl hung her head down and replied: "I wanted to test my love for Mike."

"There is direct and indirect taxation. Give me an example of indirect taxation."

"The dog tax sir."

"That is that?"

"The dog does not have to pay it."

"Two novices were enjoying a round of golf. One player sliced into a large bunker, and after some time, when he failed to appear, his opponent went in search of him."

"The latter was found seated on a log, outside the bunker, which showed signs of heavy attack."

"What are you doing?" exclaimed the other.

"Oh its all right old man," replied the beginner. "But my nits' legs got a bit overheated."

"Have adopted to see Canada first. Where skating is impossible the walk, but under no circumstances do they permit themselves the luxury of a rifle in an automobile."

"The boys are Vir. Meritt, 22 and Ben Hewitt, 21, two expert exponents of the art of roller skating."

"They reached Winnipeg Tuesday on the first leg of a 5,000 mile trip which will take them as far as the Pacific coast. They will return to St. Catherine via the same route as they came, expecting to make the journey in approximately six months."

"They looked the picture of health when they paid a visit to the Free Press office. Though they have lost weight steadily since leaving St. Catharines, they have put on considerable muscle."

"They say, on the first half of their trip they have set 55 miles as their daily average, but so far they have topped this by several miles. Their record is 102 miles in 10 hours."

"Leaving St. Catherine on Monday, they travelled through Hamilton, Brantford, Kitchener, London, Windsor, Sarnia, South St. Marys, Duluth and Emerson, thence to Winnipeg."

"I have shooting and consider it the best of all sports that we can afford," said Miss Spencer.

"As for what I may do at Bixley, well, I know I shall come a crop of corn or later on please don't expect too much."

"But Major Richardson smiles and expects a lot. Anything who can shoot so straight should know the prices at Bixley, says he."

"Though ineligible for the King's Prize of the Prince of Wales, Miss Spencer will be able to participate in all the open events and there are many of them."

"CAN YOU STEAL 1ST BASE?"

"Steal first base? It can't be done, said the fan who thought he was being kidded. That's true; it can't be done now, but it did happen, and you'll have to believe it or call Cornelius McGillicuddy a number of times. Connie tells it something like this: It was in 1902 the first year the Browns entered the American league. Harry Davis was on first and Dave Fultz on third. Davis started for second base. As no throw was made, he stole the base. On the next pitch, Davis went back to first base and then started for second again when the pitcher once more delivered the ball. This time the catcher threw to catch Davis, and Fultz started for home and scored. That, of course, was the reason Davis went back to first—to enable Fultz to score that run on a double steal. When Davis failed to draw a throw the first time, he had to get back to first again before the play could be tried a second time. The rules prevent it from being done today."

"ROLLER SKATING TO COAST."

"YOUTH STOP IN WINNIPEG."

"Winnipeg—Travelling by roller skates the unique method two youths from St. Catherine, Ont."

"Mike was home, combed, from the front, and he was stopped by a friend one day as he was heading down the street on his new ly acquired crutches."

"And how did you get on in the big battle?" asked the friend, as he sat with compassion on the sad but soldier's useless limb."

"Shore, old, but the fame of me life," replied Mike, decidedly.

"But you got very badly knocked about," retorted the other.

"Yes, I know that," cried Mike enthusiastically, "but, bearing in mind the first fight I was ever in that the police didn't stop."

"An old girl said little twin baby is a gal?" inquired Parson Jones of one of his colored flock.

"Yassuh."

"An de other one. Am dat of the contrary sex?"

"Yassuh. She am a gal, too."

"That a young man was who he found his years was proved when he passed before answering a widow who had asked him to guess her age."

"You must have some idea," she said.

"I have several ideas," said the young man, with a smile. "The only trouble is that I hesitate whether to make you ten years younger on account of your looks or ten years older on account of your intelligence."

"Two old soldiers confronted each other—sat talking in a cabin far away in the backwoods. No feminine presence ever graced that settlement, and domestic arrangements were primitive and crude."

"The conversation drifted from politics to cooking. "I got one of them three cookery books once but I never could do nothing" with it," said one.

"Two much fancy work in it," said the other.

"You've hit it. Every one of them recipes began in the same way, "Take a clean dish," and that settled me. I am no longer interested in cookery books since."

"Fungus: It says here that the explorers trying to climb Mount Everest found a new mountain sleep that can run in miles an hour."

"Winnipeg: I'm not surprised. It would take a hunk like that to keep us with May newdays."

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CROP PRICE GUARANTY

77¢ WHEAT

Take advantage of this offer...
Get the new equipment you need to reduce your production costs

Many farmers who need new machines for the economical production of their crops have been reluctant to buy them because of uncertainty as to the prices they will receive later in the year for these farm products.

In order to meet this situation, the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., offers to farmers purchasing machines after this date, a definite price guaranty on wheat based on 77 cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern at Winnipeg, applying to a liberal portion of the purchase price of the machine. If the market price for wheat does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes given and maturing this year, the purchaser of machines under the plan will receive a credit equal to the difference.

Any farmer in Canada, regardless of where he lives or what he raises, can purchase McCormick-Deering farm machines under the terms of this offer.

This is your chance to replace wornout and obsolete equipment on a favorable price basis. Let us explain the details of this remarkable plan and tell you just how to take advantage of it in equipping your farm with the new cost-reducing machines you need at a real saving.

ROCKY FORD

Many very heavy showers have since the start of this hot week and the crops are looking in excellent condition. Much of the drought is in the short blade, while a few fields are beginning to head out. A small amount of hail fell in different parts but the damage can hardly be estimated as yet.
Grains and pastures are looking better than for many years.

Mrs. Birt has as her guest, on a couple of weeks, Mrs. Leveson of Calgary.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid had a large attendance this week when they met at the home of Mr. Dunningham with Mr.
McLennan as hostess. Among the other business was arrangements for the strawberry festival which will be held on the lawn at Mrs.
Larson's home on Wednesday
June 29th, being on the Presentation of plans it was necessary to appoint a new officer.
This position will in future be filled by Mrs. Bradwell. A very annual lunch was served by the society in honor of her eldest daughter Alice who is at present at home for her vacation. The proceeds were sent to the Ladies

there were laid for the guests a very long table. A very fine lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss May, and Birt presided at the piano for a jolly sing song. Miss Alice Birt will return to Edmonton on Thursday morning and will leave from Edmonton as nurse in the hospital there.

tion.

London, 12 June 29th—An old lady in Manchester hospital rectified a mistake of identification made by doctors, nurses, parents and relatives. The lady's name is Leslie Gregory. He had been a fortnight in the hospital and his father went to fetch him home. The father found home a child looking just like Leslie. Same size, same fair hair, same eyes and nose, same profile and even a similar scar on his forehead. His cheeks were slightly ruddy and parents thought he had been in hospital.

The mother welcomed him, but she could not get him to recognize her. He would not call her Mummy, she said. He could not answer to his name. He cried constantly. "I took him with me into my own bed to comfort him, but he would not snuggle to me." The distressed mother was forced to doubt whether the child was her own. She called in relatives, but they could not make up their minds.

Mrs. Gregory went to the hospital at Thursday to make inquiries.
She was walking through the hospital ward when from one of the beds came the cry Mummy, from an excited child. It was her own baby, beyond doubt. Leslie had recognized her, and hospital authorities are now trying to explain their mistake.

A Great War!
A Great Pestilence!
A Great Depression!

4 ALL within twenty years. Could there be a more grueling test?

4 Yet life insurance stands invincible. During that whole period it paid every obligation promptly and fully — as it has ever since the Dominion was formed.

4 The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada itself paid to policyholders and beneficiaries in cash during these periods —

The War (1914-1918)
The Flu (1919)
The Depression (1930-1931)
— over $226,000,000. It has paid to its policyholders and beneficiaries since formation nearly $600,000,000.

In prosperity, life insurance is valuable; in adversity it is indispensable.
The protection of your home, the security of your business, the comfort of your old age, depend first on adequate life insurance.
